

Lexington, KY/Wellington, FL based sport horse and lameness practice looking for a full-time experienced LVT (licensed veterinary technician). We make monthly trips to Texas and Arizona (~5-7 day trips each). We also travel to many of the larger NRHA horse shows in OK, AZ, TX, OH and NV (5-12 day trips). We are looking for a polished, reliable, detail-oriented, and organized LVT with the ability to multitask. Please review details below and if you are interested reach out via email to nicole@buroakveterinary.com with a resume and references.

Duties include but are not limited to:

Stocking truck

Jogging horses for lameness exams

Scrub and prep horses for procedures

Assist with taking x-rays

Set-up and clean-up for calls

Horse handling and restraint

Completing tickets based on what medications/treatments the veterinarian administered/Performed, Gathering client information for tickets

Driving veterinary vehicle - must have a valid US driver's license

Packing/unpacking veterinary equipment

Must have computer skills

Assisting at facility as needed

Other tasks as assigned

Horse experience is necessary

Travel expenses are covered (flights, food and accommodations).

Must have a valid driver's license.

Mid October - beginning of April we are Florida based (Housing is provided in FL).

Salary is based on experience and includes benefits.

Our practice is growing and this is a very exciting time to join Bur Oak as it expands throughout the United States.