

Darby Dan Yearling Manager

Darby Dan Farm is currently seeking an experienced Yearling Manager to manage the Yearling Division. This is a salaried position commensurate of experience and includes paid time off, health insurance, 401k, and vacation. Knowledge of sales prep practices, proper nutrition of young horses, ability to manage a core staff of up to 8 people, ability to schedule regular veterinary and blacksmith appointments along with health records, and general farm maintenance for the division are all mandatory requirements.

All responses will be kept in confidence. Please reply to: charlie@darbydan.com