

Stone Columns Stables is accepting applications for paid internships at both of our farm locations.

Candidates should have basic skills and experience with horses and wish to further their education and training on the following areas:

- Management and daily care of retired horses in herds
- Management and daily care of broodmares and foaling
- Management and daily care of full care retired horses, rehab, and training horses

Top professional staff to work alongside and learn from as well as the best veterinary practices utilized on a day to day basis.

Potential for full-time employment after internship.

Candidates should email their resume and letter of interest to info@stonecolumnsstables.com.
